“ So sorry to hear the passing of such a nice person. Aixa was truly one of the wonderful people I had the pleasure of working with at the Park Ridge Post Office. I am a retired carrier from Park Ridge and one of the things I'll always remember about Aixa were her big beautiful eyes. Also she was the clerk who bought me a sheet of first day Elvis Presley stamps and hand delivered them to me at my route in the rear of the post office. Rest in peace now Aixa, I will never forget you.

“ Our friendship was still young when you passed, only 7 or 8 years. But right from the beginning, we clicked, we got each other. We seemed to have so much in common, and led parallel lives in many ways. We mostly laughed together, and you let me see your beautiful soul. You made me feel like I was your special friend, like you did with everyone. Every time I have my first morning coffee, see a stunning flower or a highly unusual bird, I think of you, Aixa, and I always will. Rest in peace. I will miss you.

“ Aixa - So sorry to hear of your passing. Though I don't believe we actually knew each other as kids, it's clear from your Facebook posts that we grew up not very far apart and share a number of common memories. May you find joy in the arms of the Lord, and your family find peace in the knowledge that you will never be far from them. - Keith Vallencourt, formerly of Chicago

“ I used to work with AIXA Serrano for over 20 years at the Park Ridge Post Office. She was a clerk, I was a carrier, and for a while I was a clerk supervisor, we worked much closer together. We share lots of laughs, she had a great sense of humor and did a killer Cher impression.

She was an excellent worker, was a stickler for things being done correctly. AIXA was also a very intelligent person, and was also pretty well versed in music, specifically song writers, singers, members of classic rock bands, band histories, who the composers were, names of songs, the specific years etc. I have been a singer most of my life, a musician and songwriter too. I had even given AIXA Cds and tapes of my songs over the years.

I had a lot of fun with her, had some great intellectual conversations, witty jokes, and she was very uninhibited. I loved her personality. When AIXA left the PO for medical reasons I was surprised and concerned, and I missed her presence greatly at the office, it wasn't the same without her there.

I talked with her occasionally during her time off. Eventually I retired too, and we'd converse a bit. I'm very sorry for the loss of her. It was much too early for her to go. My condolences go out to Aixa's family. I will miss her very much. She was a very special person to me, I was proud to have known her. I was also upset nobody notified me until today as I found out as I was sending a message to AIXA to inform her of someone else's passing.
