

Alexander A. Stankiewicz

February 6, 1942 - May 1, 2014

Funeral Service Tuesday May 6 2014 7 PM. Interment private. Visitation
Tuesday 3 PM-9 PM

Tribute Wall

JF

“ I remember having many enjoyable conversations with Al, he will be missed

John Fromel - June 13, 2018 at 09:21 AM

JM

“ I was helping the kids go over the arrangements, and we had a question for Bob, the funeral director, on how certain things were done. He replied, I don't know, it's not very often that I get an ex-wife helping with the arrangements they're usually far far away doing the happy dance! While we've had our differences, Al and I got over those, and we were able to be friends once again. I'd say, we struck a silent truce after the turmoil of the divorce years. I know for me, I just didn't want to fight anymore since we had three beautiful kids that would keep us together forever. I think he felt the same. And, of course, everybody liked Al he was just a likeable guy just look at how many of you are here today. He had that dry sense of humor, that quick wit, and that good sense of timing for the punchline. And oh how he loved his cocktails, I think he helped keep Dino & Carol at the Arbor Inn, in business much longer than they intended! You can tell from the photos, he never missed a chance for a quick nap that was also Al. Likewise, he found the opportunity to do those famous somersaults with his friend Dan! While our lives led down different roads, mine led me to the wonderful man I met 9 years ago, Don Marlowe. And one of the wonderful things about Don, is that I was free to be friends with whomever I wanted including an ex-husband! We lost a friend, a father, a brother, an uncle, an in-law (or out-law, as he always said), but heaven got an angel. ~ Joni Marlowe

Joni Marlowe - June 13, 2018 at 09:21 AM

BM

“ Our condolences to all of Al's family including Joni. Although we have not seen Al since the kids were little, we have fond thoughts of him. The memory that stands out the most is of him at PTC parties and how toward the end of the evening, you could always find Al asleep somewhere. Never understood how he could sleep thru the noise. Great guy and he will be missed.

---

Bob Mann - June 13, 2018 at 09:21 AM

LE

“ Al and I worked together at Old Kent Bank in Elmhurst, IL. He was in charge of the credit department and I was one of the AA for the commercial lenders. Al was always a kind man, always cared about employees and seemed to always make someone smile. He was fun to work with and we loved when he would bring his kids to work if we had to be there on a Sat. So very sorry for your loss. I hope all the happy memories surround you now.

---

Linda Elwood - June 13, 2018 at 09:21 AM

“ The Zajak family (Walter, Mary, Nick, Michael) would like to offer our sincerest condolences. I write on behalf of my father, Walter, who has nothing but warm memories of his time with Al. May God give you strength during this difficult time.

---

June 13, 2018 at 09:21 AM

“ I'll keep this short and sweet... like he'd want...I was helping the kids go over the arrangements, and we had a question for Bob, the funeral director, on how certain things were done. He replied, “I don't know, it's not very often that I get an ex-wife helping with the arrangements... they're usually far far away doing the happy dance!” While we've had our differences, Al and I got over those, and we were able to be friends once again. I'd say, we struck a silent truce after the turmoil of the divorce years. I know for me, I just didn't want to fight anymore since we had three beautiful kids that would keep us together forever. I think he felt the same. And, of course, everybody liked Al... he was just a likeable guy... just look at how many of you are here today. He had that dry sense of humor, that quick wit, and that good sense of timing for the punchline. And oh... how he loved his cocktails, I think he helped keep Dino & Carol at the Arbor Inn, in business much longer than they intended! You can tell from the photos, he never missed a chance for a quick nap... that was also Al. Likewise, he found the opportunity to do those famous somersaults with his friend Dan!While our lives led down different roads, mine led me to the wonderful man I met 9 years ago, Don Marlowe. And one of the wonderful things about Don, is that I was free to be friends with whomever I wanted... including an ex-husband! We lost a friend, a father, a brother, an uncle, an in-law (or out-law, as he always said), but heaven got an angel. ~~ joni marlowe

---

June 13, 2018 at 09:21 AM

“ Al was a friend for 40 years. We always enjoyed when Al, Joni and the others members of the Paramount Tall Club came to Larson's Restaurant. We were sorry we could not attend the funeral since we are in Florida. Al will be greatly missed. Love, Rolf and Linda Larson

---

June 13, 2018 at 09:21 AM