“ My deepest sympathy to the entire Doyle family for the profound loss of your beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Many people have also lost a wonderful friend, especially Maureen, who has been her best life-long friend. I have had the joy of hearing their antics together for as long as I have known Jan and her family, which is a very long time. We are all so fortunate to have known such a beautiful woman whose great love for her family was reflected by her unselfish devotion, support and unconditional love. She was forever strong, and kind, and fun, and funny...and one of the best mothers I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Her legacy will live on in the strength of all of you with her memory as the foundation. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, but love leaves a memory no one can steal. So many wonderful memories you each have to hold her in your hearts forever. When I think of Alice leaving this world, I hear this soft voice of an Irish blessing: I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;Of happy memories that I leave when life is done. Everyone who knew her was blessed with her being...she was inspirational in the most subtle way. With love and sympathy to my good friends Jan & Kenny - and all of the Doyle family,Ginny

“ No matter the time, no matter the age, no matter the circumstances, when you lose your mother you feel as though you've lost a part of yourself. May you always treasure the wonderful times you had and may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow. My deepest condolences to the entire family.
