

Anna Flader

July 7, 1927 - October 22, 2019

Anna Flader passed away peacefully on October 22, 2019.

Anna came to Chicago in 1953 to marry Stanley Flader who she met during World War II in Germany. She was a life long resident of Chicago where she worked, raised her family and retired.

Anna was devoted to her family and the holiday season was always her favorite time of year. She baked the best Christmas cookies ever. The birth of her grandchildren and holidays with them were always the best. Great food, tons of gifts and a lot of laughter. Anna always loved to laugh, she had a really great belly laugh, and her family cherished her stories.

Anna was preceded in death by husband Stanley Flader, and son Thomas Flader.

Mother of Tom and John (Debbie), grandmother of Becki (Cody), Noel, and Ryan (Lindsay).

Funeral Mass Friday November 1 2019 12 Noon at St Francis Borgia Church 8033 W Addison St. Interment Maryhill Cemetery. Visitation Friday 10 AM until time of service at the funeral home.
