“ I just found out about Anna's passing. I am stunned and saddened beyond words. Apart from my twin sister, she was my oldest friend, and close throughout the years. We were often called the 3 musketeers. The world will not be the same without her.

“ Anna Polisenio Jacobazzi I've known you for the last several years. We've had late nite conversations on the phone & over the fence, some sad, some racey & some simply hysterical. We even "cleaned house" together, talked each other through some tough days. May you take pride in all you did for your parents, the late Eleanor & surviving Nick. As they took so much pride in you. May you be greeted with open arms into heaven's gate & rest easy in peace & glory. May your family take comfort, although so sudden there is no pain or suffering for you to endure. Rest in peace & Glory my friend.
