Our time is getting closer with each passing day..... can't believe how many years have passed! I miss you, Michele, and Maddie the most. I expect to see all 3 of you at once! Love from your favorite friend, mom and sister!

“ You are still my bff. I think of you often and still want to pick up the phone and call you! I didn't forget your birthday..... I was looking at them trying to find the best one for you. I finally had to remind myself that I don't know your zip code! You need to know that you didn't miss anything this past year. We had a pandemic. I know, I had to look it up.... the whole world is sick with a virus that is near fatal. Now it's mutated. I am house bound and you know how I feel about that. Cindy dragged me up to Asheville N.C., kicking and screaming I might add, but it's probably the best place to be right now. We're on the side of mountain and we have three pigmy goats. Can't wait to get back to the beach! 😊 You know how much I like my sunshine ☀️ There is on bright spot in all this turmoil and confusion, we got a new President down here. You would like him. He has a heart and a soul!

I love you and miss you. Don't forget to save me a place right next to you so we can chat and get in trouble like we use to!

“ It's your birthday 🎁! You know I never forgot, as you never forgot mine, only now I'm going on by myself. We were the same age for barely a month each year. You managed to stay younger than me for all our lives, and now you will forever.....

I will still remember and send you something. Keep me in your prayers, I know you're still praying even though you don't have to! Here's a little gift to help you keep track.

Love and miss you still.....

“ It has been a little more than a year and I still feel the pain and emptiness of losing my very dearest friend. It really doesn't get any easier. I think about you often and still want to pick up the phone or better yet, get in the car and head north! Neither option is possible any more..... I will just cherish our many years of friendship and be content with that. I do need to let you know that Cindy had a veggie garden this year and we had and still have tomatoes of all kinds. I remember how we used to raid my mother's garden, especially the tomatoes! Cindy definitely has my mother's green thumb. Every time I pass the tomatoes I grab one and wish you were here to share it with me..... I love and miss you!

“ So sorry to hear about Arlene's passing. Arlene was a wonderful Grandmother to Nicole and Jeff's children (and I am sure to all of her grandkids) and supportive friend to my Aunt Sharon. I haven't seen her in years, but heard about how good she was to her family. Arlene was a true matriarch to her family and she will be sorely missed. My you find peace in knowing that she is with God and family in heaven. With love and sympathy, Jill Weiner
