“ I have been thinking what to say, knowing no words could convey the magnitude of the loss. Betty was absolutely one of the best she was Angel on earth when your mother and father came over Betty would talk to Lisa and Dan would talk to me many times dropping off a pizza from Barnaby's. Your mother and father as a team we're always happy together. I noticed a long time ago both would look to see what the other was doing. Betty always had good things to say, and was very kind. And very amused by all of the things in my shop she said in a kind way this is why Dan loves coming over here. There is so much to fix, but it might need a little cleaning, and Lisa would agree.

Dan won the lottery when he married Betty

Betty and Dan both won with their kids, grandkids and extended family and friends

My deepest sorrow And all my prayers are with you,

Roger

“ So sorry to hear about Betty. There were a group of us from the neighborhood that became good friends. Glad I was one of them. Had many fun times. Dating, engagements, weddings. Having children. Great memories. Sympathy to the family.

Aunt Betty and Uncle Danny were flat out two of the nicest people I've ever known, and I'm fully confident of their happy reunion beyond the veil. I never heard an unkind word leave her lips.

“ Thoughts of Betty

Betty was a quiet soul, pensive and intelligent, more agreeable than most. She took the loss of those close to her so very hard.

She always had a smile and a kind word for everyone.

In her later years, riddled with this sad degenerative disease, her smile and sparkling eyes came through and touched your heart.

She will be missed by so many here on earth, and carried by Angels to be greeted by her parents, her brother and her sweet Danny.

Rest in peace Beautiful Betty. See you on the other side.

Love, Fred & DiAnn
