“ Betty you were always like a mother to me, I have known you most of my life so I can only say that your passing has touched me deeply. I take comfort when I can share with Linda all the good times we had we you as we were growing up and then in our college years and when you went up to Wisconsin, we had had some some great times, that we still laugh about to this day and thos are the days a d that's how I care to remember you....I know the few haven't been the greatest and now I know you are happy again and that fighty Betty we all came to love. I don't ever say goodbye I only say till we meet again. Thank you for giving me the pleasure to share part of your life it help me become a better person in mine...Love always...your second daughter Anna.

Betty truly was a wonderful lady. She had a wonderful way of dealing with whatever life Send her away. She had a way of making everyone feel welcome, with her smile, and her sense of humor. She will greatly be missed
