“ I am sorry to hear about your father's passing. I have warm memories of Casimir. One thing we had in common was our love for books. His home always had a pile of library books. One day, a title caught my eye, "The Gift of Pain." I got my copy from my local library. What an eye opener. It helped me reframe how I view physical pain. It provided insight into the physiology of pain and why its considered a gift we should be grateful for. Another memory I have of your Dad is his ability to get a message across with few words. When I left a light on afer leaving a room, he would say, "Use not, Waste not!" I now use the same phrase with my kids. May the warm memories of your Dad bring you comfort and peace. He will be greatly missed. Jean Modry

“ Deacon Casey was such a sweet and gentle soul. I will always remember his wonderful smile and gentle ways when I would visit St. Francis Borgia. He was so dedicated in his project to make sure he had records of where all Catholic Deaf are buried. My sympathies and prayers to his family. May the angels lead him into paradise, and martyrs welcome him to the new, eternal Jerusalem!

Now, Casey is in a better place called in "Heaven" with Lord Jesus Christ! There is no more suffering and able to see his wife!

“ Dan & Natalie, Dave & Cassie, and families; my deepest sympathy on the loss of your father, grandfather and great grandfather.

"Wujek Casey" was one of a kind. A true gentleman, devoted husband and father, an accomplished man for his time, generous and dedicated to the Catholic deaf community for so many years. He was filled with 99 years of wisdom, always firmly dispensed. And definitely gifted with that unique Polish attribute, uporczywy ! I will miss him dearly and never forget all the wonderful times I was blessed to spend with him, and Aunt Alice, especially visiting all the Chicago landmarks and dinner at the old Red Apple.

I am forever grateful for his love and prayers and I know he is forever happy now with Aunt Alice. May he hear the choirs of angels singing at last !

“ Uncle Casey and Aunt Alice came to visit when my son was just a few years old, probably, around 1993. Uncle Casey especially got a kick out of Philip and he and Aunt Alice left a lasting impression on us. We will never forget their warmth and kindness. Rest in peace 🙏

“ I remember traveling to Chicago for some Company I was working for at the time, back around 1996 or so. Uncle Casey and Aunt Alice had me over for Dinner and we played board games afterwards. He and I also took a trip to the Navy Pier and we toured all the exhibits. He was very kind and exuded great spirituality. A great man and a great example of living your life and overcoming obstacles.
