

David H. Eichler

December 6, 1958 - July 11, 2023

David H. Eichler passed away July 11, 2023.

David was a father, grandfather, uncle and great uncle.

He was the loving son of Mary Eichler (Mammy). David was also the youngest brother of Garnet (the late Bill) Griffin, Thomas (Beverly), William (Joanne), Robert, Dennis (Pai), Karen (the late Larry) Gatz and the late Donald Eichler.

David's passing was unexpected to his family, friends and co-workers.

He was looking forward to his retirement in December 2023.

David chose a very private life, but as a talented hockey player he took time to coach hockey to younger hockey players. He was also known to be a popular and a talented football player during his high school years.

David's family and many friends have precious everlasting memories of him.

He will always be known as our baby brother.

God loves you David and so do we.

XOXO

Interment will be held at St. Joseph Cemetery at a later date.

“ The Day that Dave & I met in 7 th grade We were instantly Best Friends ! & I was the New Kid from a different school & We became Inseparable that day forward , thru middle & high School up until Our 20's Dave's Mom was really fond of Me & I thought the World of Mrs Eichler , she was So Sweet to Me !
Life got in the way & Dave & I lost touch on & off for a few years , but I Always Felt He was Close by & there if I needed Him ! & I would have been there for Him for Anything !!! We haven't seen each other in too many years ! But I always found Comfort just knowing He was OK & here on this Earth, I was Crushed when I heard the Sad news of Dave's passing & I cried in a Public place in front of Other people , I don't know , maybe I assumed that He would outlive Me ? IDK - but Him being Gone hit Me as if We Saw each Other everyday a week ago !
I Always Loved You Brother ! & I still Love You Dave , Jimmy
