“ My deepest condolences to Sharon and her mother Mary. I was a classmate and friend of Diane's as a kid in grammar school. Diane was funny and sweet. I only have good memories of her.

“ Sweet Cousin Diane, she wouldn't hurt a fly. Always concerned about everyone and had a laugh that echoed in your heart. Diane was a fun older cousin to have as a little girl growing up because she was a young adult who explained things to me about life but in a youthful manner. She never made anything too big or scary for me. She was all heart and we are all better for having had her love in our lives.
