“ A week later and it still doesn't seem real in any way to me, so I cannot imagine how you are all feeling that were with her daily and were so much a part of her life. I will continue to Pray for her and you all in the hope that as you continue to bond into a New and different Family together that the pain will some how subside and be replaced with warm memories of your Mom in the days, weeks and years to come. May our God be with and comfort you all as you heal soon. Love to you all, Aunt Luran and Uncle Al

Thank you, Uncle Al and Auntie Luran! The pain is severe but the memories are glorious. I am thankful for the 44 years that I knew her but especially the last decade where we had become very close. I miss her terribly. Thank you both for all of your love and support!
