“ I read Frank Toland's obit and the memory of my childhood neighbor brought a smile to my face. He and Helen were always a friendly presence when I was growing up next door on Paris Ave. If I recall correctly, his birthday was the day after mine, April 17th. I remember I was in a happy, silly mood...skipping and dancing across my lawn. Frank stepped out and told me today's my birthday...I'm 60! he said, and I called back to him, "and I'm 17!"Lovely people, the Tolands. What a good long life Frank led. Fortunate for you all. My sisters, Kay and Christine, and I, plus my brother Joe have to miss Frank's visitation, but we'll be there in spirit. Only fond memories for us. Beverly Bjork Ottaviano

“ I have many memories of Frank while working with him at Attic Angel. We spent a lot of time taking, he told me stories about "back in the day" in Chicago. He was very well loved by all of us. He had a heart of gold and was so appreciative. Such a wonderful man. My condolences to his family.
