“ I still can't believe you are gone. I will always remember the last time we hung out. It was in Milwaukee at the Slayer concert back in May. All of us had a great time and you being you. it was never a disappointment with your quick wit and making everyone laugh. I will miss you always my friend and always know that you were and still are very much loved.

“ Eddie, our hearts are broken. I keep hoping I will wake up and find out this is a nightmare. I hope that one day, we will meet again. Thank you for being so much fun to be around. You always had a way of making everyone laugh. Rest in peace, our dear sweet friend. All our Love, The McKinnon/Wrzek Family

“ Words can't describe how heart broken everyone is. You always seem to light up the room and make everyone laugh no matter where you were. This just seems so unreal. I keep playing the last time we were together a couple of weeks ago you were so filled with happiness and making everyone laugh as usual you were so happy that night. You're such a great friend whenever someone need you, you were always there. REST IN PARADISE my friend and one day we'll see you again

“ The memories are endless. We all have different but powerful relationships with you. I cared for you in so many ways but most importantly it was how you became a great father. And an even better uncle especially to Riley... She thinks your bowling when it rains. So she's not scared of the thunder. All our memories are memories with you. We miss you so much. And we will never forget you Eddie. Uncle Eddie.

“ Idilio and I are childhood friends. He and I went to Norman Bridge Elementary school together. He was an amazingly gifted and spirited child, who grew to be a real stand up guy and loyal and giving soul. I can still visualize his mom dropping him, Danny and Maurizo off at school. My heart and prayers are with his family, mother and brother's especially. Although, we are all quite sad, I thank God that he thought enough of all of us, to place someone as special as Idilio in our lives. It was a privilege and honor to have known him.

“ Your funeral was beautiful today, there was so much love that surrounded you and I am sure you enjoyed seeing everyone together. It was hard seeing all the sadness of the people that will miss you so very much. Especially your mom, family and friends. Your mom sure did a good job with you, and as a mother myself, I can't imagine what she went through today. You were loved so much and you will be missed by so many. This neighborhood will not be the same without you. Look forward to playing pool with you again someday buddy. Love and Peace to you Ed and everyone that will be missing you.

“ We are all going to miss you man. I'll never forget the times we had together. I've never known anyone like you and never will. You were one of a kind and had the biggest heart. You always made sure to tell us you loved us. A piece of all of us is gone with your passing. My deepest condolences to Mrs. Campana, Lisa, Maurizio and Danny and all your friends.

See you on the other side. We'll have some Mad dog 20/20 at the pearly gates.

“ I am going to miss you a lot Ed. i miss coming to your house to jump online and play some COD. late night after a crappy day of work. Even though i had it at my house, being in your presents was an experience in itself. .but now driving by, just kills me inside knowing i cant hang out with you anymore.. there's really very little i remember when i was 5 years old, but i could honestly say even after 20 years i remember all the fun stuff we did in my parents basement. it hurts everyday knowing your not here. i feel so sad inside. i could have had the worse day ever but talking to you and the jokes we had were priceless. just loved the jokes we cracked at one another, but its all gone now, and i feel like my humor is gone with it. ED love you man
