

James F Reilly, Jr.

March 3, 1927 - November 17, 2012

Funeral mass Saturday November 24 2012 10:30AM at St Francis Borgia Church 8033 W Addison St. Interment Queen of Heaven Cemetery. Visitation Friday 3Pm-9PM.

Tribute Wall

RR

“Dad, you worked hard to provide a good life to all of us. I am proud to be the son of a retired Firefighter. You changed many lives, including mine. I love you, Dad.

Robert Reilly - June 13, 2018 at 09:35 AM

KK

“Uncle Jummy...what can I say, always laughing, smiling, joking, & loving. I know you & my dad are having a ball up there together. Just watch where you put those dentures.

There is a huge hole in our family now, you will be missed terribly. Send my love to my mom & dad for me

Don't know if I will get this right, but here goes, for as bad as I am is as good as you are, for good as you are is as bad as I am.

So Godspeed to your bad self, enjoy those SUDS.

Love Always, Karen

Karen King - June 13, 2018 at 09:35 AM

DR

“ My Grandpa lived life to the fullest every day. In his prime, he worked hard, played hard, loved hard and took care of everything. When he walked into a room, the party had truly started. You only had to look for the loudest laugh to find Grandpa/Dad/Uncle Jimmy there. The world is a little less bright without him. His greatest lessons to me were to never let hate into my heart and to always be there for family and friends. I'm heartbroken for our loss but comforted to know that he is up there looking out for all of us now. So kick back with a cold one, Grandpa... you deserve it.

Diane Reilly - June 13, 2018 at 09:35 AM

TR

“ May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate a life well lived.

Ted Raab - June 13, 2018 at 09:35 AM

DI

“ Grandpa lived life to the fullest every day. In his prime, he worked hard, played hard, loved hard and took care of everything. When he walked into a room, the party had truly started. You only had to look for the loudest laugh to find Grandpa/Dad/Uncle Jimmy there. The world is a little less bright without him. His greatest lessons to me were to never let hate into my heart and to always be there for family and friends. I'm heartbroken for our loss but comforted to know that he is up there looking out for all of us now. So kick back with a cold one, Grandpa... you deserve it.

Diane - June 13, 2018 at 09:35 AM

PR

“ I did not know you but I know your son Jim, he is the best, God bless you for having him.

Paula Van Riper - June 13, 2018 at 09:35 AM