“ Ive been trying to figure out for over a month what I could say here. Trying and failing to find words at how much I miss him. Trying to remember a story about him that would show what he meant. And the truth is, no single story could ever show that. I remember him taking me to get ice cream down the street when I was really little. I remember we went to see the golden compass at the movies. He introduced me to Shania Twain, and to this day I can't help but sing along to Man, I Feel Like A Woman. I also know that I am extremely privileged. He was there when I graduated college and I got to know him as an adult, something not everyone can say. Still, it didn't feel like enough time.

To papa: grandma and dad and I miss you so much. I'm really glad you liked the cheesecake I made at christmas, and I've been cooking more than ever. I'm sure you're thrilled at how much of a democrat I am, and I've been talking with grandma about politics a lot. I've also been telling her all my plans for when traveling is allowed again. It's been so much fun, and I wish you could've been there for it.

Love, Emma

“ I'm not very good about writing, here goes. Don't how this happened, so sudden and final. We used to have so much fun in Tucson at the family dinners and with our friends in Indiana. Rick, Emma and Diane are ok. Nothing will ever be the same. I really miss your crooked smile. Wish I could give you just one more hug. You will always be in my ❤️. Love, Roberta

“ Our only regret is that we didn't meet Bert and Jimmy earlier. We enjoyed our time with them camping and getting together in Arizona. Jimmy had a sense of humor that made us laugh whenever we were around him. Bert, we are so sorry for your loss. We will miss him very much.

“ My entire life is filled of memories of Uncle Jimmy and Aunt Roberta. The last 3 days I've sat wishing I had more pictures. I'm so blessed to have grown up such amazing godparents who always took the time to see me, ask about life, even simple things like sending cards. I'm so thankful for the many memories I have... I'm going to miss polishing Uncle Jimmy's head, the hugs I was always greeted with, or hearing "love you too" even time we were parting ways.

Uncle Jimmy wasn't just my dads brother, or an uncle who I can't remember the last time I seen him, he was never not around. My heart hurts.

Uncle Jimmy I will miss you deeply. Thank you for always making me feel like I was someone special. I love you!!!

“ Uncle Jimmy was the only one of my dad's siblings that stayed in Chicago, so the one I spent the most time with, who we saw on Christmas and who was always at our special events growing up. Lots of good times shared. He is loved and missed. Love to Aunt Roberta, Ricky and Diane and Emma.

“ Dear Roberta, Rick, Diane, Emma,
There are really no words to express our feelings on the passing of Jim.
He was a Great Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother, and Uncle to all and will be missed by many. Take comfort in knowing that we are all here for you and your family during this difficult time. It's hard to lose someone who meant so much to all of us, and even harder that we can't all be together to say goodbye. We want you to know we are with you in spirit, now, and in the days and weeks ahead.
Our Deepest Sympathy, Wayne & Maureen
We Love You
