“ John and I worked a few side jobs together with my father Joseph Turilli. The fun we had and even the couple jobs we did together will always be in my fondest memories. John was one of the best partners any electrician could ever have. Rest in peace my fellow brother and time to reunite with the kids.

*Dear Cousin Linda, My heart goes out to you for another loss. You have endured so much pain and sadness over the years. No words of comfort can take your sadness away. Just know that your loved ones are in the arms of God watching over you, for they are your Angels.
Love Cousin, Joe*
