

Juan Reyes III

January 26, 1957 - December 27, 2020

On Sunday, December 27, 2020, Juan Reyes III passed away at the age of 63. Loving husband and father of three children, Juan was born on January 26, 1957 to Juan and Maria Reyes. A Holy Cross high school graduate, all star football player, letterman, and class secretary, Juan went on to become a decorated Chicago Police Officer of 30 plus years. Juan was also a Master Mason of lodge No.777 and member of the Shriners International.

On December 13, 1986, Juan married and eventually raised two daughters and one son. Juan had a passion for sports and music. He loved coaching and playing guitar. Juan was a master in "Dickering" and had a love for rusty gold. A self made financial success who owed no one. First born, and loving friend to his six younger brothers, Cruz, Tony, Dan, Steven, Mike, and Joe. Juan is survived by his Father and Mother, Juan and Maria Reyes, his wife, Gloria, three children, Elizabeth, Stephanie, Juan IV, and brothers. He will be remembered and missed dearly.

“ I have a memory of Juan stopping me on the stairwell in the old 10th District to tell me how proud he was of his children. I can't recall the exact conversation, only the gleam in his eyes and excitement in his voice over something they had done for him. He was truly a family man. My sincere condolences to his family. Requiem aeternam, Juan.
