

Judie Dobzyn

November 28, 1920 - March 29, 2020

Judie Sheruda Dobzyn, a long-time resident of the Chicagoland area, died Sunday the 29th of March peacefully in her home. Judie was born on November 28, 1920. She was married to the late Harold Dobzyn. Judie loved cooking for her family, enjoyed socializing with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, reading a good book, and showing off her quick-wit while possessing a wonderful smile that could light up a room. She was a devoted wife, beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and a treasured matriarch. Judie is survived by her children Monte (Margaret) Dobzyn, Gwen Dobzyn (Bruce Ackerman), the late Andrew Dobzyn (Breck Kuhnke), and Mark Dobzyn; her grandchildren Kate (Brian) McCormack, Ann (Scott) Seifert, Ellen (Mike) Garippo, and Laurie (Jim) Rooney. She will forever be remembered by her nine great-grandchildren (Michael, Grace, Max, and Rose McCormack, Jillian, Jack, and Michell Seifert, and Patrick and Owen Rooney) all of whom live in the Chicagoland area, and brought great joy to her later years.

The funeral service and committal service at Maryhill Cemetery are private due to the coronavirus crisis. A memorial mass at St Francis Borgia Church at a later date. The private funeral service was livestreamed at:
