

Julie M. Warner

July 24, 1927 - April 7, 2018

Julie had a great business mind and was a successful entrepreneur, with her variety store and coin laundry.

She also loved sitting and watching people.

She enjoyed fashion and shopping for it.

Family holiday get togethers were always fun. She enjoyed lecturing her nephews Gary, Glennie, Greg & Lawrence about saving their money and watching the expressions on their faces.

She truly missed her sister Loretta after she died.

She hated when she and her sister Mary Ann were out together and people would say to her "you have a beautiful daughter" but Mary Ann always enjoyed that. Haha

She appreciated all the help her nephew Greg had given her over the years like doing her grocery shopping, taking her to the beauty shop, bank and doing minor home repairs.

She also relied on her nephew Lawrence for her furnace repairs, and she was thankful for his wife Cindy for all the holiday food she brought over every holiday.

But best of all she looked just like her beautiful Mother.
