“ Leo was one of a kind. During the thirty years or so that I knew him but we had many great conversations about the proper way to grown a tomato and mow the lawn, his Green Bay Packers and most importantly his grandchildren who he adored.

I have a lot of memories of playing in his sprinkler on the front lawn as a child (it annoyed him but Loretta always laughed) and bringing him his fish sandwiches from McDonalds after she passed.

He was a wonderful neighbor and will greatly be missed.

“ Leo was the epitome of a good neighbor and a good man. I enjoyed our many conversations and listening to his stories of his childhood and reminiscing. I miss looking out my door and seeing him and hearing his grandchildren say “I love you PaPa” every time they left. I know how much he loved all of them. Rest In Peace Leo, you certainly deserve it.
