“ We want to share a humorous thought. In the mid 90s at our daughter’s wedding while everyone was dancing, Aunt Lillian grabbed a broom and started dancing with it, when a friend of ours came over to her and joined her in the dance. She had the broom and our friend took off his suit coat and started swinging it over his head while the two of them danced around each other. Aunt Lillian always had a great sense of humor. We will truly miss her humor.
