“ We all met as freshman at University of Illinois at Lundgren Hall in 1970. We had the distinction of living in the basement-which we nicknamed the "Lundgren Underground." We had the best of times together and I have many fond memories of Mary. She was the kindest and sweetest of all people. Mary possessed this incredible wit and sense of humor. She was always "MARY REYNOLDS" not Mary to all of us. MaryReynolds was loved by all.
