“ To the Hinch Family, Especially Virginia, I really did enjoy having Deacon Ralph in my St. Thomas University M.A. program and we had deep conversations on Science and Faith and just know that Deacon Ralph had a full life of happiness especially with Virginia. I enjoyed seeing you at NCOD and having breakfasts with you too. I knew who to look for before NCOD pastoral week began because you would be one of the first arrivals and that gave me a chance to really chat with Ralph and Virginia. Thank you for that!
Ralph is now an angel in Heaven.
RIP, Ralph! Kate Slosar

He was so excited to take this pic. We waited over an hour. He never thought the Cubs would win in his lifetime.

“ Its hard to pick one memory of Ralph. He taught me in MFP. We worked together in Deaf ministry and I saw him at all the NCOD meetings. But my favorite memory is watching Ralph having the honor of being Deacon for the Deaf Mass in St Peters Basilica in 2008 during the Deaf pilgrimage and Virginia leading the choir in Sign song. It was wonderful! May the angels welcome your home, Ralph!
