“ Mrs. Kirby was one of the most pleasant and likable women I've ever known. She took care of me as if I was one of her own. We did many things together as a family. Between her and my wife, Karen, I got to learn a little bit of Greek. Kristos Anesti! Alethos Anesti! Dear, Lord, Take care of Mrs. Kirby until we can be together again.

“ Dear Karen, I am so sorry for your loss of your dear mother. You are a reflection of your mom in the way you treat people with respect and empathy. Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs to you and your family.
