“ I met Bill through my mom, Barb, about 15 years ago. Bill and my mom were good friends for the last 20 years and were always looking out for each other. I would join them at Bill’s in the summer out in his backyard admiring his amazing zinnias and vegetable gardens. Some of my fondest memories were of Bill telling my son Parker to go pick the Raspberries and climb his tree, meanwhile we would have a cold beer on the deck and Bill would tell stories of hunting or of old times and old friends. On Tuesdays We would meet at Rosatti’s for half price pizza, Bill would order the fab4 and pitcher of beer. He would give Parker quarters for the gumball machines. Bill never missed stopping by for Parker’s birthday or giving him a card at Christmas. Bill was a loyal, dependable and trustworthy friend who will be missed! Here is a picture I took of my mom and Bill in better years, and years ago when he bought Parker this tshirt.

“ I met Bill by chance one day while shopping at Jewel grocery. I was wearing an orange hat and Bill walked up to me and asked if I was a hunter. I wasn't sure what direction this conversation was about to go. It soon became apparent that Bill was a fellow hunter that shared the same passion. Even though I was in a bit of a hurry to grab some groceries and head over to my father's house, a conversation took place that lasted about an hour. We stood there sharing memories of past hunts. He spoke so highly of his hunting partner and son in-law. He had such a great smile on his face as talked the hunts in Indiana. We instantly became close friends. I will miss him until we meet again in the happy hunting grounds in Heaven.
