“ Ma, as the famous song by Savage Garden says “I knew I loved you before I met you”. You were my first love! I remember looking into your bright blue eyes as a child and knowing what love felt like. I never wanted to leave your side. You were my everything. Over the years, I got to share you with Rochelle, Aeliscia, Payton, Jaxon, and Jaylen. You then became their everything. We will miss you cooking and baking every holiday for us, you singing karaoke when we got together, you constantly telling us to eat organic and to leave be bioengineered stuff out of our bodies, me telling you I was fine eating all the GMO’s and HBO’s. We will miss seeing your beautiful smile at the kids sporting events, birthday parties, and 4th of July celebrations. These holidays will never be the same without your presence. Most importantly, I will miss you telling me my birthday story on my birthday, you singing Happy Birthday to me, you telling me you’re praying for me. I think about you always. I will never forget the love and dedication you had for me. I will think of you often and pray for you. You are a part of me and I will continue to live each day for you. You made each and every one of us feel special. I am at peace knowing you are in heaven, but I beg God to send you back. I know he won’t, so I will see you when it’s my time. Say hello to grandma and grandpa for me. I love and miss you all! God bless you.

“ The day you left this world, a piece of me left with you. My entire life, you've been getting me ready for this very moment. Now, I can no longer call you, feel your gentle touch, or embrace you. I regret not appreciating the little things, like hearing your voice or feeling your warm soft skin. You've given me strength and wisdom that only a mother can provide. You taught me independence and strength, opening my eyes to the world's harsh realities and the protection you offered. I am who I am because of you, and I'm forever grateful for our bond and the love you shared. Until we meet again, I will keep making you proud.
I love you, Mom, always and forever,
Your loving babygirl, Karla
