

Zivart Bayradarian

January 1, 1928 - October 2, 2018

Zivart Chiloyan was born on January 1, 1928 in Harpet, Turkey. When she was eight-years-old, she and her family moved to Aleppo, Syria. She resided there for sixty-two years. Zivart married Nishan Barakdarian and had three children: Garo, Marguerite and Mesrop Barakdarian. In 1990, Zivart and Nishan left Syria and moved to Northlake, Illinois, where they lived two houses down from her daughter, Marguerite and her two grandchildren, Simon and Maggie Manoyan.

Zivart was a passionate and warm woman with a loving and generous heart who loved spending time with her four grandchildren: Simon, Nicole, Maggie and Michelle. Zivart was an amazing cook that no chef could hold a candle to. Her secret ingredient was love.

Zivart passed away on Tuesday, October 2, 2018 after an eight year battle with Dementia and paralysis. She was survived by her children: Garo, Marguerite, and Mesrop.
